FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“OLD TOWN STOMP” FEATURES ii:V:I COMMUNITY TURNAROUND AWARDS

Lansing, Mich. (Feb. 21, 2011) – The Old Town Stomp features more than great music for a good cause; it headlines the presentation of the ii:V:I Community Turnaround Awards by the Michigan Institute for Contemporary Art.

The Old Town Stomp will be held Wednesday, February 23, 6-9 pm at Perspective2 (319 E. Grand River, Lansing’s Old Town). The event features music by guitarist Elden Kelly, as well as Blues Music Award nominee Vincent Hayes performing with the Boogie Woogie Kings. Appetizers and a cash bar will be offered. Media are invited.

ii:V:I is a chord progression that provides an underlying structure allowing jazz musicians to improvise together. Michigan Institute for Contemporary Art (MICA) presents the ii:V:I Community Turnaround Awards to those who support creativity and the arts in Old Town Lansing.

Tickets to the Old Town Stomp are $15 and help support the free Lansing JazzFest and Old Town BluesFest. Purchase online at: <http://www.perspective2studio.com/happenings/default.aspx#stomp>

Michigan Institute for Contemporary Art is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization dedicated to quality arts programming. See www.oldtownarts.org or call 517-371-4600 for more information.
